

Kiuchi Shuzou, Ltd.

1257 Konosu, Naka-Machi, Ibaraki-ken Naka-gun, 311 0133, Japan

Brewery Description:

The Kiuchi Brewery was established in 1823 by Kiuchi Gihei, the headman of Konosu village. His family was collecting rice from farmers as land taxes for the Mito Tokugawa family. He began his brewery with the idea of using the remaining rice stocks in the warehouse to produce sake. In 1996, the company started brewing beer with a capacity of 1,500 barrels per year.

Kiuchi No Shizuku Hitachino Nest

Distilled White Ale

■ Sake & Yuzu Wine

Hitachino Nest White Ale is distilled down to an alcohol content of 30% by volume. It is then matured in oak barrels with the addition of coriander, hops and orange peel for one month. More Hitachino White ale is added and the product is distilled again to an alcohol content of 50% by volume. After the second distillation Kiuchi No Shizuku is matured in oak barrels for six month.

It is then filtered and bottled at a final 43% alcohol by volume 86% Proof.
