

Gewuerzgose "Spiced" Gose > Bayerischer Bahnhof > Leipzig Germany

Bayerischer Bahnhof's Leipzig Gose spiced with coriander, vanilla, clove, orange peel, coriander, cardamom and nutmeg.

Appearance: A pleasing soft orange hue with a thin white head the subsides to wisps of lace.

Aroma: The nose comes across with a massive cardamom presence playing with the soft wheat notes. Notes of citrus immediately pop.

■ Beer Collection

Style: Leipziger Gose brewed w/spices

Alc./Vol.: 4.6%

Flavor: Lighter on carbonation but playful enough on the palate. Orange peel and cardamom are prominent in the taste with the cinnamon lightly trickling in. Hints of vanilla toward the finish and you are finally left with the salt lightly playing on the middle of you palate.
