

Goseator > Bayerischer Bahnhof > Leipzig Germany

■ Beer Collection

Style: Doppelbock
aged in Tequila
Alc./Vol.: 6.8%

■ This is the original Leipziger Gose brewed double the strength (as a doppel bock) and then aged in tequila oak barrel. It is very interesting and it is definitely worth a try!!

Appearance: Hazy orange / deep golden in color.

Aroma: Freshly shaved horseradish, black & red currants & mustard seeds.

Flavor: Citrus, horseradish. A solid influence from the spirit, almost more of whisky / vodka influence than just tequila. A touch of oak.

Finish: A lingering note of booziness.
