

Hanssens Kriek > Hanssens Artisanal > Dworp, Belgium

"The color is almost heartbreakingly stunning; reds, roses, pinks, and oranges, all at once, like a beautiful sunset. The aroma opens up with a barnyard gambit, but this quickly dissipates, allowing complex aromatics of cherries, wood, earth, vanilla, and mold to come through... The Finish is long, tart, fruity, and finally drying. An absolute masterpiece." Garrett Oliver, The Brewmaster's Table, p. 77-78
