

Quarta Runa > Birrificio Montegioco > Montegioco, Italy

■ Beer Collection

Style: Ale brewed with
Fresh Peaches
Alc./Vol.: 7.0%

The peaches are added during fermentation when the activity of the yeasts reaches the maximum vigor. The peaches are heated to 200° Celsius in an oven before being added in order to increase the flavor intensity of the wild peaches and eliminate the wild yeasts.

The Birrificio Montegioco was born in 2005 from the creative mind of Riccardo Franzosi and his passion for brewing. He first started brewing the "wonderful drink" for its simple appeal to staff and numerous friends. And subsequently he has decided to transform his best creations from a hobby to an actual business.
